"Bending Towards the Light ... A Jazz Nativity" is the Christmas story told through the wonderfully expressive medium of jazz and opera with a cast of today's greatest singers and players. There is abounding joy when the Three Kings enter to present the gift of their talent!

"By the end of "The Jazz Nativity" you know you've been through something wonderful...a stirring celebration of Christmas" Dr. Billy Taylor, CBS Sunday Morning

"None of the classics is half so giddy, nor so utterly entertaining as "The Jazz Nativity" that burst onto the stage of Orchestra Hall " Howard Reich, Chicago Tribune

"Incredible show! You deserve an award! Our children couldn't stop talking about it!" Arthur Mills, NYC Office of the Mayor
